Your family and friends have a big influence on how you think about occupations. You first learn about work and leisure activities from the adults in your family and in your community. Interview someone you or your family knows who has an interesting occupation. Use the questions below to find out what this occupation is all about!

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Person's first name that you interviewed:</th>
<th>How you know the person:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Occupation Title:</td>
<td>Place of Employment:</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

1. What are the duties and responsibilities of your occupation?

2. What is your favorite part of the job?

3. What part of your job do you like the least?

4. How many hours a week do you work? What times do you work?

5. How do you work with other people on the job?

6. What school subjects help you most on the job?

7. What kind of training, education, or experience did you need for this occupation?

8. What advice would you give to someone my age who would be interested in this occupation?